

Sheri-D Wilson C.M. D. Litt

Mama of Dada Sheri-D Wilson is an award-winning performer and author of 14 books, 4 short films, 3 plays, and 4 poetry & music albums. Her most recent work is a humorous three-book one-story trilogy of speculative poetry entitled, The ONEIRONAUT Ø1, published by Write Bloody North.

Her work has received many awards and honours, including the Order of Canada, an honorary Doctor of Letters – Honoris Causa from Kwantlen University, Poet Laureate Emeritus of Calgary, the Stephan G. Stephansson Award for Poetry, and the Women of Vision Award.

A strong advocate for social change & community building, Wilson was the Founder/ Artistic Director of: Calgary Spoken Word Society (2003-2024)
Spoken Word Program | The Banff Centre (2005-2012).

Sheri-D splits her time between Calgary & Vancouver with her dog Willow – where she's as busy as the water-table-controlling Emblem of Canada.

www.sheridwilson.com

insta @sheridwilson | twitter @SheriDWilson | facebook.com/facethepoet