

Rod Carley BIO

Rod Carley is the award-winning author of three previous works of literary fiction (humour): Grin Reaping (long listed for the 2023 Leacock Medal for Humour, 2022 Bronze Winner for Humour from Foreword Review INDIES, a Finalist for the 2023 Next Generation Indie Book Award for Humor/Comedy, and long listed for the ReLit Group Awards for Best Short Fiction of 2023); Kinmount (long listed for the 2021 Leacock Medal for Humour and Winner of the 2021 Silver Medal for Best Regional Fiction from the Independent Publishers Book Awards); A Matter of Will (Finalist for the 2018 Northern Lit Award for Fiction). His short stories and creative non-fiction have appeared in a variety of Canadian literary magazines, Cloud Lake Literary, Blank Spaces, Exile, HighGrader, and the anthology 150 Years Up North and More. He was a finalist for the 2021 Carter V. Cooper Short Fiction Prize and a proud alumnus of the Humber School for Writers. He was the 2009 winner of TVO's Big Ideas/Best Lecturer Competition for his lecture entitled "Adapting Shakespeare within a Modern Canadian Context." Rod has lived in Toronto, North Bay, and recently returned to his hometown of Brockville. www.rodcarley.ca.